LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Anxiety for the Swatara's Arrival--The Radicals Petting Grant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.

Everybody now seems to be on the qui vive for the arrival of the steamer Swatara with Surratt on board, the last of this month having been regarded as about the time when that vessel would make her appearance. The Navy Department has received no information since her departure from Lisbon. The first news would probably come via Fortress Monroe, as the steamer would be most likely to call there en route to Washington. The Radicals are counting upon exciting revelations when the prisoner does arrive.

The extremists are again coquetting with Gen. Grant. What their game is, it is difficult to mention; but many are of the impression that they are anxious to get in his good graces, and so have his assistance in any undertaking they may commence next session. They are already claiming that he is with Congress in its policy; but there are many daily indications to give the denial to all this. Butler, however, does not chime in this eulogy of Grant. TYRO.

Bill Simpson's Legal Experience.

Many years ago the Legislature of Tennessee passed an act to organize the county of McNairy, alias Snake. At that time, the county embraced in the limits of Snake, was occupied by a sturdy set of backwoodsmen, totally unacquainted with courts, jails, &c. The county assembled at the appointed site for the purpose of cutting logs, making boards, etc., to build a courthouse and jail. The only theme of daily conversation, when the men were assembled, was the court, etc. None of them had ever seen a court in session, as yet developed. Each one would give what his idea of a court was, etc.

None, however, were entirely satisfactory, until Bill Simpson was called upon to give his ideas. He said he knew all about a court—that he had had a lawsuit in North Carolina. One of his neighbors hogs kept coming when he fed his hogs, until it got fat. One morning he got so d——d mad that he shot the hog. He thought it would not do to throw it away, so he cleaned and salted it. Shortly after, his neighbor and a man came to his house, examined the smokehouse, and took him to town and put him in a little office. About three months after that, this man came and took him up to a large room. A large man sat upon a high bench—a man was sitting at a desk—about a dozen fine dressed men sat in a place that was paled around. The man put me in a pen just behind them.

He then called in twelve men; they took seats in a box in front of the fine dressed men. The man that was writing gave the twelve men a book and said something about Bill Simpson and State. Then one of the fine men read something about Bill Simpson and the hog, and he and another of the fine dressed men had the biggest quarrel you ever heard. I thought they would fight every minute but they didn't. It was Bill Simpson and the hog, and the hog and Bill Simpson, and sometimes Mr. Simpson, but d——d seldom. After they had quit quarreling, the big man talked awhile to the twelve men, and they went out and staid a short time, and came back and said something to the man at the desk. The man on the bench said something to the man that put me in office, and he took me out and tied me to a persimmon tree and commenced fighting me with a cowhide, and it made me so d——d mad that I shook all the persimmons off the tree.—Winchester Home Journal.

THE RADICALS PLEASED BECAUSE THE SOUTH REJECTED THE AMENDMENT.—An effort will soon be made to take up Mr. Sumner's resolution declaring the twenty-six States which are represented in Congress, including Tennessee, to be the only ones competent to pass upon constitutional amendments. The Radicals now express considerable gratification at the unfavorable action of the Southern Legislatures on the Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress last summer. They say that it is not strong enough, and after the passage of Mr. Sumner's or some similar resolution excluding the Southern States from the right of participating in the adoption of amendments to the Constitution, it is the intention of the majority here to submit an amendment of a much more stringent nature.—Sun.

A NEW PROGRAMME.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial writes to that paper:

There are indications that, before long, Congress will assume a more conservative attitude on the treatment of the States recently in rebellion, and that President Johnson will lend his aid in the protection of loyal men, so that they, and not rebels, will control public affairs. The details of this new programme, which will be acceptable to Congress, and which the President can carry out without any sacrifice of dignity or of principle, are for the present kept private; but it is well known that the arrangement exists in embryo.

Mr. Davis's Capture.

Secretary Stanton transmitted to the Senate to-night a copy of the report of Major-General Wilson of the capture of Jefferson Davis. It includes the reports of the subordinate officers sent out to prevent the escape of Mr. Davis across the Mississippi river, including that of Lieutenant Colonel Pritchard, of the Fourth Michigan cavalry, who made the capture. Not one word is said in these official reports of Mr. Davis having been taken in any costume but his own. Had it been otherwise it would certainly have been stated. Thus is a miserable slander, promulgated at the time, now refuted in the quarter where it might have been denied from the first, but was not.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments upon them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,
BY WHICH
Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts,—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Feb. 4, 1867.

The Legislature.

The proceedings of the Senate to day were of no unusual interest, except the passage of the Penitentiary bill on its second reading, with some amendment.

In the House, several matters of interest were considered. The Judiciary Committee made a lengthy and able report on the bill of Mr. Latham, of Craven, which provided for a complete stoppage of proceedings in matters of debt. As a matter of interest to our readers, we shall publish, at an early day the bill and report. The report criticises the bill sharply and opposes its passage. When we intimated, the other day, the probability of its passage, we based our remark upon information derived from the friends of the bill. We have since learned that the more the bill has been considered, the stronger have become the objections to it.

The bill transferring the Agricultural Land Scrip to the University, passed its second reading to-day, by a large vote.

Our Legislature and the Federal Constitution.

Our legislators are hammering away at many measures for the relief of our distressed people, and the Constitution of the United States is constantly invoked by the several advocates and opponents of those measures, either to sustain or frustrate them. What rights have we under that once sacred instrument? None more than the serfs of Russia have under the absolute will of the Czar of that mammoth despotism. The Southern States are neither more nor less than so many conquered provinces, subject alone to the absolute and uncontrolable will of the fanatical majority in the Congress of the United States. They have the right alone to dictate to us our status in all our civil and political relations, connecting us with the Federal government, except what was stipulated for us by Gen. Lee in his surrender; and that secured for us, so far as we know, no civil or political rights whatever. What is the use, therefore, of our legislators appealing, on all occasions, to the Federal Constitution, for direction and guidance in our legislative enactments? It is breath, and time and money spent for nothing. We would respectfully suggest to you never to take the name of that once hallowed instrument in your profane lips. Legislate as though such and institution as the Federal Constitution did not exist under the sun, and you will act wisely.—Charlotte Guardian.

We cannot endorse the above from our cotemporary. The people of North Carolina, under the amnesty swore, and so have our legislators, sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, and they are bound to respect it, whatever course the U. S. government or any of its departments may see proper to take in reference to it. Nor do we admit that that instrument is not in force and does not in law and right, protect the State and its people, whatever may be thought of the facts exhibited before the country of its violation, in letter and spirit, by any whose duty it is to enact or execute laws under it.—Sentinel.

The Washington Mission.

The gentlemen appointed by the Governor on the mission to Washington, have all returned home. We are glad to learn that all of them speak hopefully of the aspect of public affairs; at least, that the situation is not so threatening as it has been, and that there is some room to hope that the conference of Southern men recently at Washington, may result in an early settlement of difficulties.

The intimations thrown out in the Washington papers and by letter writers, that the late Conferences of Southern Governors and others with members of Congress and others, have evolved a plan of settlement, which has received the sanction of leading Republicans and Democrats, and understood to be favorably thought of by the President and a portion of the Cabinet, we learn, may be regarded as correct. In a few days, the plan will doubtless be made public.

We believe that the anxiety of the people of the South to put an end to the strife and the turmoil, make them ready to yield to any reasonable demand, and will lead them to throw no impediment in the way of an honorable and reasonable adjustment of the difficulties between the North and South. We are ready to give our sanction and support to any arrangement that meets those conditions.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—The whole amount received by Washington College, since the war, from all sources, has not yet reached the sum of one hundred thousand dollars. Twice this amount is yet needed to make the College what it ought to be.—Lexington Gazette.

It is highly gratifying to us to see such evidences of prosperity at Washington College, under the Presidency of the illustrious Gen. Lee. We observe that Mr. W. D. Cooke of Richmond, is visiting the towns and cities of this State, soliciting subscriptions to endow a Lee professorship in that institution, in honor of Gen. Lee. We honor that man, and we would second any proper efforts to promote his honor and his own welfare. And we hesitate to make a suggestion, which it appears to us duty and propriety require, fearing that it will be misconstrued. But no one who knows us, can call in question our regard for Gen. Lee.

Washington College is doing admirably for these times. It far exceeds any institution in North Carolina in patronge and success, because of the popularity of Gen. Lee. Our own University and Colleges are languishing for the want of means. Our University and Colleges, needs all the means that the Legislature and our people together, could spare. Now while this extreme necessity exists, it seems to us our people should look more at home. Hence, we do not feel that our high veneration and respect for Gen. Lee, lays us under any obligations to build up Washington College, while our University and Colleges at home, are so needy and so helpless. We cannot, therefore, give encouragement to the mission of Mr. Cooke.

The proceedings of the Grand-Lodge in memory of the late Wm. T. Bain, are necessarily excluded to-day on account of their length.—They will appear to-morrow.

American Bible Society.

The Agent of the American Bible Society, Rev. Mr. Hardie, of this city, requests us, and through us, all the editors of the State, to give publicity to the following communication, from the Secretaries of the Institution he represents. It may help to undeceive some who have been duped.

The man who would thrust his impositions under cover of a religious institution deserves to be exposed. The people, especially in these times, deserve to be protected.

Let young men understand that a five hundred dollar gold watch cannot be afforded for a dollar. Agencies that pay two hundred dollars a month do not go begging, if honorable Gift Enterprise's advertisements that call for "a postage stamp in return," and all games of the kind, ought to be avoided. The best way to get a gold watch is to work for the money, and buy of a man you know and can trust. The best salary is that, that results from honest, industrious, frugal labor.

The fact that a Chicago Gift Enterprise man should come out of his shop with six hundred thousand dollars profit, shows that he drew the largest prize of all.

The Mail Agents say that the amount of mail matter to and from these Gift Enterprise shops is very large. And the gentleman referred to above, who travels much over the State, informs us that he sees in all directions tokens of the extent of this swindling scheme.

Let publicity be given to this statement, by all the editors of the State.

CAUTION.

Frequent complaints have recently reached us from responsible persons, in various parts of the country, of which the following, from a gentlemen in Kentucky, is a specimen:

That one of the rooms in the Bible House is rented to a quack doctor, or a doctor who sends out his circulars, which are calculated to deceive or impose upon the people, as coming from the Bible House in New York. Many imagine that they are sanctioned by the Bible House. From other sources we learn that the room referred to is No. 12 Bible House.

We reply that no room in the Bible House is rented to any such person. "No. 12 Bible House," is occupied exclusively by the U. S. Government, as Station D., Branch New York Post Office.

We cannot prevent any matter going through the Post office. The circulars referred to above, as we have reason to believe, are issued by a person, whose real office is in another part of the city, and who, by this mean subterfuge, thus attempts, with too much success, to deceive foolish people and get their money, for his own profit and the ruin of others.

SECRETARIES AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.
Bible House, N. Y. Jan. 12, 1867.

It will surprise some people to learn that the Federal military still occupy the Executive Mansion at Raleigh, N. C., to the exclusion of the Governor of the State.

We see the above going the rounds in the papers. It is incorrect and unjust to the military authorities. While Gen. Ruger was in command here, he notified Gov. Worth of his readiness to surrender the Executive Mansion, whenever it was desired. It has not been asked for, for the reason that the Legislature has failed to make any appropriation for the repair of the buildings and lot, rendered necessary by the depredations committed upon them; and it has been thought advisable to leave them in the hands of the military, to prevent the damage which might be done by having them unoccupied, until an appropriation was made to put them in repair. Gov. Worth occupies his own house from choice, until the buildings and grounds are put in a proper condition to occupy.

The editor of the Raleigh Standard, the Ex-Provisional Governor, and unsuccessful aspirant after San Salvadorean honors, is diligently endeavoring to purge himself of any taint of disloyalty by the most fearful zeal in his new business of Radicalism.—Rich. Examiner.

The Ex-P. G. considers the taint of disloyalty a very offensive one—it stinks in his nostrils; and therefore, to rid himself of the odor, he must necessarily get hold of something that stinks louder; and hence he anoints himself thoroughly with the oil of radicalism and nigger combined. But it won't do; his disloyalty smells the louder.

Correspondence.

The following correspondence is published at the request of Mr. Covington, and will explain itself:

SENATE CHAMBER,
February 2d, 1867.

Col. H. H. Davidson, member House of Commons:

DEAR SIR:—The Senators in this Chamber, having learned of the distressed circumstances of yourself and family, in consequence of the loss sustained by you in the burning of your dwelling-house and other buildings, and almost the entire contents of the same, take pleasure in giving an expression of their sympathy in making a donation to you, which is herein enclosed, of two hundred and twenty-two dollars.

In addition to the above amount from members of the Senate, I enclose $8 more, $5 from Rev. W. E. Pell, of Raleigh, and $3 from W. C. Bryan, Esq., of Craven.

Very respectfully, Your Friend,
D. A. COVINGTON,
In behalf of Senators.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
Raleigh, N. C. Feb. 2nd. 1867.

Major D. A. Covington, of the Senate:

MY DEAR SIR.—Your favor of this date is received, conveying to me the assurance of the sympathy of yourself and brother Senators, together with a voluntary donation of two hundred and thirty dollars, contributed by Senators to help repair the losses sustained by the destruction of my dwelling house and furniture by fire. Please be kind enough to assure your brother Senators, that they have my heartfelt thanks for the sympathy thus expressed for me and my family, in our present distressed condition, and tender to them the thanks of myself and family, for the contribution with assurance, that nothing but my destitute condition, the condition of my family without a house, and the financial condition of our country, rendering it impossible otherwise to provide a shelter for my family, would induce me to accept the same. Please accept individually assurances of my appreciation, of your friendship for myself and family. Please express my sincere thanks also, to the other gentlemen who contributed.

Your Friend,
H. H. DAVIDSON.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

MONDAY, Feb. 4th.

The House met at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. McKay presented a memorial from the President and Directors of the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad Company. Referred.

Mr. Cowan, a memorial from citizens of New Hanover county, accompanied by a bill to change the mode of appointing auctioneers in the city of Wilmington. Referred.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Kenan, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back favorably a bill in relation to set off, and unfavorably a bill to extend the time for the registration of deeds, &c.

By Mr. Perry, of Carteret, from the same committee, unfavorably upon "a bill for the relief of the people of North Carolina, introduced by Mr. Latham, of Craven.

On motion of Mr. McNair, this report was ordered to be printed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House proceeded to consider a bill to transfer the Land Scrip donated by the United States for an agricultural College.

(As pertinent to the matter under consideration, Mr. McKay submitted a report from a special committee, to which had been referred a memorial from the Trustees of the University. This report recommended a transfer of the scrip, or an appropriation of the interest arising therefrom, to the University at Chapel Hill, for the establishment of an Agricultural College.)

Mr. Davis moved to amend the bill as follows:

"Be it further enacted, That it shall be the privilege of the county court, in each county in the State, forever, to select annually one native of the State, resident in said county, of good moral character and capacity for usefulness, without the requisite means to defray the expenses of education, who shall be admitted to any classes in the University, for which he may be prepared, free of all charges for tuition and room rent, so that each county may always have one representative in the Institution."

Mr. Davis addressed the House in support of the bill, urging the peculiar claims of Chapel Hill, and the advantage to be derived from a transfer of the scrip to that Institution.

Mr. McKay offered a bill to establish an Agricultural and Mechanical College at the University of North Carolina, and for the relief of the University, as a substitute for the bill under discussion.

Mr. Davis opposed the substitute, chiefly for the reason that it made the Public Treasurer the Trustee of this fund. This, though not intended as such, was a reflection upon the Trustees of the University. Besides, the Treasurer's duties were multifarious, and he could not devote that exclusive attention to the interests of this fund which they would constantly demand.—He also opposed the substitute because of the appropriation in advance of $7,000 which it proposed.

Mr. Cowan, addressed the House in support of the original bill, and read from the act of Congress donating the scrip, to show that the State should act definitely upon this matter at the present session. He adverted to the facts that the State had no power to divert this fund from its original purpose, or to place it beyond its own control, and argued that the University being the only institution under the control of the State, the Land scrip must be bestowed upon it, or else, another institution must be now created to receive this endowment, and effect the objects proposed.

The question recurring upon the substitute, it was rejected Yeas 38 Nays 65.

The amendment offered by Mr. DAVIS was adopted.

Mr. Moore, of Hertford, offered an amendment diverting escheats from the University and donating them hereafter to other colleges in the State.

Mr. Hodnett opposed both bill and amendment.

The amendment was rejected.

On motion of Mr. Harper, the bill was amended by providing that pupils may be admitted to the branches of Agriculture and Mechanic arts, who possess the requisite qualifications for those studies, without requiring the previous Literary training requisite for admission into the regular college courses.

The bill was further amended by adding the following proviso:

Provided, That the University shall comply with the act of Congress, and make its leading object to teach such branches of learning as are related to Agriculture and the Mechanic arts, without excluding other scientific studies and including Military Tactics.

The bill as amended, passed its second reading as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Allen, Baker, Bowe, Bradsher, Brown, Bryson, Chadwick, Clark, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Collins, Dargan, Daniel, Davis, Davidson, Garris, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harper, Henderson, Hinnant, Hodnett, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Lee, Long, Lowe, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Moore, of Hertford, Morehead, Murrill, Patton, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Scott, Shelton, Simpson, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Turnbull, Umstead, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Wilson, of Forsyth, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Woodard.—65.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Autry, Beasley, Blair, Blythe, Boyd, Carson, Clements, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Foard, Gambril, Garrett, Harding, Henry, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jordan, Latham, of Washington, Logan, Lutterloh, Moore, of Chatham, Morton, Neal, Perry, of Wake, Russ, Scoggin, Sudderth, Teague, Trull, Vestal, Williams, of Yancey, Womble, York.—37.

A bill to exchange a certain amount of stock in the N. C. Railroad, with the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad Company, and for other purposes, was taken up, on motion of Mr. Dargan, who addressed the House, explaning its purview and urging its passage.

The bill passed its second reading.

Messages were received from the Governor in relation to the Literary Fund; and to the investigation of the affairs of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company. Sent to the Senate with a proposition to refer.

Sundry engrossed bills had their first reading.

Mr. Chadwick introduced a bill to establish a criminal court in the city of Newbern.

Mr. Hutchison, a bill supplemental to an act authorizing extra terms of the county court of Mecklenburg county.

By Mr. Baker, a bill to incorporate the town of Rocky Mount, in Edgecombe county.

The House then adjourned.

LIFE OF TURNER ASHBY.—The life of Turner Ashby, written by the Rev. Jas. B. Avirett, of Winchester, Virginia, is in press, and will appear by the last of February next. The writer was chaplain of "Ashby's Cavalry." The proceeds of sales are to be applied to raising a monument over the peerless young chieftain, in the Stonewall cemetery at Winchester, where his remains now repose.—Richmond Examiner.

This will no doubt be a highly interesting volume. The author Mr. Avireft, is a native of this State and a clever gentleman, and will do justice to his hero.

Mail Contracts.

We have been issuing for several weeks, the mail contracts to let, by the Postmaster General for this State. We hope that parties disposed to contract, will not be backward in sending in their bids. Bids will be received at the contract office at Washington until the 28th of the present month. Parties who do not take the Sentinel, but who desire to examine the proposals, can obtain copies by sending to this office.

Mr. Lincoln and Slavery.

In a private note for Mr. Stephens' eye "only," which Mr. Lincoln wrote to him in 1860, (now, however, published in Cleveland's new book,) Mr. Lincoln expressed himself as follows:

[For your own eye only.]

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., December 22, 1860.

Hon. A. H. Stephens:

MY DEAR SIR:—Your obliging answer to my short note is just received, and for which please accept my thanks. I fully appreciate the present peril the country is in, and the weight of responsibility on me. Do the people of the South really entertain fears that a Republican administration would, directly or indirectly, interfere with their slaves, or with them about their slaves? If they do, I wish to assure you, as once a friend, and still, I hope, not an enemy, that there is no cause for such fears. The South would be in no more danger in this respect than it would in the days of Washington. I suppose, however, this does not meet the case. You think slavery is right, and ought to be extended, while we think it is wrong, and ought to be restricted. That, I suppose is the rub.—It certainly is the only substantial difference between us.

Yours, very truly, A. LINCOLN.

RECONSTRUCTION—INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT.—Several of the late provisional Governors of the Southern States and other influential Southerners, have for several days been in consultation with the President and members of Congress, relative to reconstruction of the Southern States. Their plan has not been made known, nor has it yet assumed a positive shape.

THE PRESIDENT'S NEW PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT.—"Data," of the Baltimore Sun, writes:

The President's new plan of adjustment, based on qualified suffrage and amnesty, of which I have already made mention, has been further matured and discussed, and somewhat modified in details. The prospect of its adoption by the administration is almost certain.

Mrs. Major Williams, formerly Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas, celebrated the first anniversary of her last marriage by twins.

On Saturday morning last, Gov. Letcher received by mail, his pardon by the President through the Attorney General's office.—Lexington Gazette.

THE SCOUNDREL BRADLEY ARRESTED.—SAVANNAH, January 31.—The negro Bradley, who it is alleged has been inciting the colored people about here to resistance of the laws, was arrested this morning by the United States authorities.

Lieutenant Lemon, of the Freedmen's Bureau, who was shot in the arm yesterday by a negro on the Cheves plantation, is doing well.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost.—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—I proceed, in this paper, to another class of impreprieties, namely: to the vulgarisms that prevail among us. Of these, there is plenty to be found everywhere, in writing and in conversation. They need very little amplication, and indeed would scarcely deserve to be mentioned, were it not for the circumstance hinted at in the former paper, that public persons, and even scholars, are at less pains to avoid them than they should be.

1. "This here report of that there committee." Dr. Johnson, in the Tatler, says, "Some persons whom I could name in the English Parliament, whose wealth, and not merit, raised them to that dignity, use this vulgarism very frcely, and expose themselves to abundant ridicule by so doing." May not the same remarks be applied to gentlemen whose position in society, or something else, (though it might be difficult to say what) raised them to a similar dignity in the Legislatures of our country?

2. Veracity for credibility. This is not a blunder in conversation only, but in speaking and writing. "I have some donbt of the veracity of this fact," says an author of some distinction. Now, veracity relates to the character of the person, credibility, of the story told. The same is the case with all, or most of the words of similar formation, such as capacity, rapacity, tenacity, &c.

3. "You have no right to pay that money."—In this sentence, which is a very common one, the word right is used for what logicians would call the correlative term obligation. The form of expression should be "you are under no obligation," &c.

4. Equally as well—and equally as good.—This is frequent in conversation, and public speaking. It is also to be found in some publications, of which it is needless to name the authors; but it is just as good English to say, "the most highest mountain in America."

Let me notice but two other expressions in this paper, which will be long enough for one reading, as I wish to say more about them than I have said about any others. The words are clever and nice.

5. "He is a very clever man," "she is quite a clever woman." How often are these phrases to be heard in conversation? Their meaning, however, would certainly be mistaken, when heard for the first time by one born in lower Virginia, and, perhaps, in some other States.—At least, this would have been the case thirty years ago. In these cases, of very frequent occurrence, clever, as a colloquial word, is often improperly used in the sense of good-natured, well-disposed, kind, honest, and the phrase clever man, or clever fellow, is employed to denote a person of good nature, good disposition, good intentions, without the least regard to capacity. Nay, if I am not mistaken, it is frequently applied, when there is an acknowledged mediocrity of capacity. But in old Virginia, thirty years ago, clever always meant capacity, and might be joined to a good or a bad disposition. And I prefer this greatly, perhaps, because I have been used to it from my boyhood, and for a still better reason, it is the good old English meaning of the word. We say of a man, he is a clever man, a clever tradesman, a clever lawyer, a clever fellow, without any reflection upon his moral character, yet, at the same time, it carries no approbation of it. It is very good English, and very common, to say, "He is a clever fellow, but I am sorry to say it, he is also a very great rascal." When cleverness is applied primarily to conduct and not to the person, it generally carries in it the idea of art or chicanery, not very honorable. For example, "Such a plan I confess was very clever; (i. e. sly, artful, well contrived,) "but not very fair." And now for

6. Nice.—Here is a word much used, especially in conversation, often without any well defined meaning. The true and original meaning may be ascertained by consulting any good dictionary, and I think many persons will be surprised to find the meaning so entirely different from any they have been accustomed to attach to it. Instead of my own remarks on the word, permit me to use those of Arch-deacon Hare, one of the politest scholars of the day, which were furnished by him to the "Philosophical Museum" many years ago:

"That stupid vulgarism by which we use the word nice, to denote almost every mode of approbation—for almost every variety of quality, and from sheer poverty of thought, or fear of saying anything definite,—wrap up everything indiscriminately in this characteristic domino,—speaking at the same breath of a nice cheesecake, a nice tragedy, a nice oyster, a nice child, a nice man, a nice sermon, nice day, a nice country, a nice mill-pond, as if a universal deluge of niceties had overwhelmed the whole Island; this vulgarism, I say, has taken even in the lowest classes, and one hears plough-boys talking of nice weather, and sailors of a nice sea."

We have certainly followed the English in the use of this word, as we all know. My opportunities of intercourse with my friends are very rare, and yet, within the last fortnight, I have noted the following cases of its use in conversation: "Was not that a nice prayer?" "What a nice ham!" "This is the nicest rag carpet I ever saw." "We had a nice game at base ball," not meaning exact, precise, or any of its true meanings, but pleasant, agreeable, as the whole conversation showed.

I will endeavor to furnish some provincialisms, or local vulgarisms in the next paper, if any of your readers wish to see them. Y. Y.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 2nd, 1867.

THE EDITORS OF THE SENTINEL.—In reading your paper of yesterday, I was glad to see that a day and hour have been set by the Legislature for the consideration of the bill concerning a State Penitentiary.

A more timely or urgent proposition could hardly come before that body. Crime is on the increase, and the safety and prosperity of the country are in danger. It is a matter of serious consideration, with us, as to what measures should be adopted for checking the outrages of the times.

Since the adjournment of the Legislature, in December, the writer of this has visited a distant State, (a Southern State) with the view of looking into the Penitentiary system, not "by appointment," but voluntarily, and from a deep interest in this great remedy for evil. He has returned more than ever impressed with the necessity of such institutions.

The very nature of crime requires that it not only be punished, but the criminal reformed.—The mere infliction of punishment only deters others from perpetrating the same deeds that have brought some men to the scaffold. But how far does this preventive measure go? The course of all history only shows that mere fear has but little effect upon men. A man may see distinctly the result of crime, placed so vividly before him as to make him shudder, but the whole race is a living witness that the shudder lasts only for a moment.

Nothing is more distinct than the results of intemperance: yet men drink, and deliberately gradually induce the consequences, of intemperance. So it is with hanging, so it is with every fruit of crime.

The infliction of punishment is only a part of the needed discipline. What the country wants is not simply the blood of the offender, but his reformation. Society needs the moral effect of the reformation of criminals.

Can this be accomplished? Can a bloody murderer, be transformed into a good man? He who even questions it, had as well confess his ignorance of history. The experience of prisons in this country and in Europe, give most encouaging and abundant proof that this sort of reformation can be and is now going on, in the Irish prisons—said to be the best in the world, 80 out of 100 are supposed to be reformed. Many a man has been taught in prison, and it may be for the first time in life, that "the way of the transgressor is hard," and he has left the gates of the States' prison, a better man.

The discipline of a county jail and a Penitentiary, will not bear comparison.

In the first place, the period allotted to county jail confinement is too short for any particular discipline, beyond confinement, whipping, etc. In the Penitentiary, ample time is afforded to carry out a profitable regimen. In the Penitentiary you have the benefit of some evangelical persons, who will have time to instruct and argue with the prisoner. Short rations subdue more than whipping. Old thieves, thrown into promiscuous company with young thieves, will contaminate the younger, and send them out with new tricks. This can all be better regulated in commodious State prisons than small county jails.

In some cases, the terms of sentence are commuted by good behavior. For instance, if a man behaves well in prison one month, they curtail his period of confinement one day—two months, two days, etc. In some cases, good behavior buys certain other privileges. If a man does well a month, they leave his cell door half open. For another month's good behavior, they leave the door entirely open all day, etc., until he earns the privilege of walking out a little.—If he proves false, he is set back until he again earns the privilege of having his door half open. They say this brings good results. Many a man thus disciplined, for the very first time in life, tries to be a good man. Then when his term of imprisonment is about to expire, a committee get a situation for him, in some remote part of the State, away from his old companions, and where he is free from his old temptations.

In some cases they place to the credit of the convict, all the over work he does in caning chairs, shoe making, weaving, etc., so that when released they have some pocket money and may get into some business, and are thus relieved from the immediate necessity or pretext of necessity of stealing.

All this can be better secured in a commodious States, prison than in a small county jail.—The selling of liquor to prisoners, can better be prevented in the former. Religious teachers can better operate in the former. In the case I refer to in the beginning, I preached to three or four hundred prisoners, where we had vocal and instrumental music conducted entirely by convicts, and the effect was perfectly apparent. Religious instructors are needed to tell these prisoners the cause of crime—its moral results, the remedy for it—the power of association and for the first time in some cases reason with them about the evil. Many get into prison who are not more to blame than their delinquent parents, their whole moral culture has been shame fully neglected, and needs to be begun.

All this can be done and is done best in large prisons. And whether it can be beneficial to us as a State, those who have the matter in hand must decide. The writer of this, though not a public man, together with a host of others, most earnestly hope that a Penitentiary may be built. G.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.50
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

For the speedy and certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remitent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

IMPORTANT SALE.

I WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION IN THE Town of Henderson, on Tuesday the 12th. February next, valuable situated within one mile of the Town of Henderson, on a never failing stream of water, which affords sufficient power to attach a Cotton Factory, if purchaser should so desire. These Mills are new, and in excellent working order; they having been built last year. Have been in successful operation for the past five months, during which time the Saw Mill alone has yielded an income of about five thousand dollars.

Manufacturing and Saw Mills;

I will sell with Mill, one hundred and fifty acres of heavy timbered land, said timber of superior quality. Also the timber off of two hundred and fifty acres of land, all of which is adjoining the Mill property.

Will be sold at the same time, two good yoke of Oxen, one Log Cart, a splendid pair of Mules, one two-horse Wagon and Harness, a superior lot of Hogs, of improved stock, and many other articles too numerous to mention, including one sett Blacksmith tools.

Also, at the same time and place, two very valuable

Houses and Lots,

I feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the above property, as valuable as any of the kind in the state.—Capitalists desirous of investing in property that will pay, can do no better than examine this property and buy.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, their upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Etna Life Co., in loosing $23.000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4.000.000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attension. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Letres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
